

DR. RUSSELL D. STALLINGS, Sworn for the State. About three weeks ago late in the afternoon a lady came in and asked me to let use the telephone. After she got through using the phone, her conversation with me was as follows: "I know in my own mind that Frank did kill Mary Phagan. He is one of the meanest men I ever had any dealings with. I worked for him and I know him. None except young girls and them good looking can get a job with him, and they have to do as he says or they can't hold their positions. I left because I would not do as he wished. My mother works there now but she commenced after Frank was locked up." I was a witness at the trial. I asked her her name and she told me her name was Mrs. Maud Bailey. J.A. Bledsoe was present during this conversation. I have seen same lady and found her name to be Mrs. Maud Bailey.
